Eagle Recognized Among Top 100 Global Financial Technology Providers for Sixth Year Standing

BOSTON – October 29, 2009 – Eagle Investment Systems LLC, a leading provider of financial services technology and wholly owned subsidiary of BNY Mellon Asset Servicing, today announced that it was named one of the FinTech 100 companies, an annual international listing of the top financial technology vendors ranked by American Banker, Bank Technology News, and IDC Financial Insights.

“For the past 20 years, Eagle’s products and services have helped investment managers comply with industry regulations, remain competitive through advanced technologies, and save time and money through the automation of back office processes,” said John Lehner, president of Eagle. “We continue to outperform our competition by significantly investing in our technology and services, which enables our clients to adhere to important industry mandates and manage and report insightful investment information to their clients and partners.”

The top 100 ranking was compiled from fiscal year end revenue and the percentage of revenue attributed to financial services, as well as from data gathered from vendor surveys, independent research, and market analysis conducted by Financial Insights.
