BNY Mellon Asset Servicing appoints new EMEA Head of Client Relations for securities lending

LONDON, December 8, 2009 – BNY Mellon Asset Servicing, the global leader in securities servicing, has appointed Jeannine Lehman as Head of Client Relations, EMEA within its international securities lending business.

Based in London, Lehman will have responsibility for Global Securities Lending client relationships in Europe, Middle East & Africa and the management of overall service delivery to clients in that region.

She will report to Rob Coxon, Head of International Securities Lending in London, and also to Bill Kelly, Global Head of Sales and Client Relations, in New York.

Chip Davy continues in his role as Head of Client Relations, Asia-Pacific with responsibility for that region.

Having joined BNY Mellon in 2004, Lehman was most recently Managing Director - Integration, in which role she managed various legal entity transitions as part of BNY Mellon's post-merger integration programme, including the recent establishment of the company's Belgian bank entity.

Prior to joining the company, Lehman worked for eight years in Global Markets at ABN AMRO, based originally in Chicago and then Amsterdam. She has also held positions in the US at Bank of America, Continental Bank and Amoco Corporation. She holds an MBA from the University of Virginia.
